PROGRAM COORDINATOR RANDALL FOLKER

A former Coast Guard E.M.T. and Beach Lifeguard in his hometown of Huntington Beach, California, "Coach Randy" has over 20 years experience working with children in sports, recreation, and school settings. He worked for 12 years as a Recreation Director for the City of Seal Beach and has been coaching age group and national level swimmers for more than two decades.

Randy holds a degree in Education from Indiana University and is pursuing his Master's in American Studies at the University of Hawaii. He is currently teaching Physical Education at Assets School.

CAMP OVERVIEW

A variety of different activities will be offered such as traditional sports, game room, art classes and projects, guest entertainment, weekly outings plus much more. Campers will be given the opportunity to experience a positive environment and develop friendships that will increase their self-esteem, boost their confidence and develop their independence.

Our mission is to foster your child's life skills and abilities; our ways and structure to attain it are unlimited!
